

Fitness Director/Personal Trainer

Country Club of Roswell

Country Club of Roswell, a private family-oriented country club seeks experienced individual to lead our growing Fitness operation. This is an excellent opportunity for a self-motivated individual seeking established clientele at a conservative private club. This is a 25 hour per week, morning position Monday through Friday, with flexible hours.

Areas of Responsibility:

- Teaches multiple types of fitness classes and performs personal training as needed
- Performs fitness evaluations for the membership
- Monitors and reports on classes and programs, makes recommendations to meet changing needs of the membership
- Responsible for correct and accurate billing procedures according to club policies
- Promotes and markets the fitness department to the membership, ability to develop new programs and services that will build member interest in fitness and wellness
- Enforces club rules and policies, especially those pertaining to the safety and conduct in the fitness area
- Keeps all fitness areas and machines clean and organized at all times, restock supplies
- Greets users of the fitness center, answers telephones and maintains files of member fitness evaluations, testing and other information as needed
- Promotes and schedules member appointments with other club fitness trainers as desired by the members

Qualifications

- At least two years of fitness facility experience
- Excellent interpersonal and motivational skills, outgoing personality
- Positive, polite and willing to serve as the face of fitness for the membership
- Current CPR and AED certification
- Must be able to work morning hours Monday through Friday, we are flexible on the exact times but generally would be 8am to 1pm

Excellent hourly wage plus personal training income and additional commissions

Please email resume to: ccrgm@ccroswell.com