MEAD GRADY / JOHN JORDAN AWARD

FOR RECOGNIZING ACHIEVEMENT IN CLUB MANAGEMENT

(General Managers, Club Managers and Assistant Managers are eligible)

The Mead Grady/John Jordan Award is a prestigious honor bestowed upon individuals within the private club industry who exemplify extraordinary dedication, selflessness, and leadership within the Georgia Chapter of the Club Management Association of America (CMAA).

This award serves as a tribute to Mead Grady and John Jordan, two exemplary figures known for their unwavering commitment to the industry and the chapter.

Recipients of this award embody the spirit of service by demonstrating exceptional contributions to the Georgia Chapter and the club management industry as a whole.

This award will be presented to the person who has shown a selfless contribution to the industry and the Georgia Chapter, displaying a deep-seated commitment to its members' growth and success. The recipient will have gone above and beyond in their willingness to mentor, guide, and strengthen fellow members of the Georgia Chapter, nurturing talent and fostering professional development within the community. Additionally, the recipient will have effectively represented the chapter at the national level, embodying the values and standards of excellence upheld by the CMAA.

Their dedication, mentorship, and representation serve as a beacon of inspiration for all members, embodying the essence of the Mead Grady/John Jordan Award.
